Language building

Sentence endings ‘as well’ or ‘either’

‘as well’ can be used like ‘too’ at the end of a sentence. It used when things are positive or the same.

Example:
A: I got Grade four in English.
B: Yeah, I did as well.

‘either’ can be used to say when the idea of the sentence is negative or ‘not’.

Example:
A: I don’t understand the English teacher.
B: Yeah, me too, I don’t understand her either.

Activity

Complete the sentences with ‘as well’ or ‘either’

1. a: I didn’t do the science homework.
b: Oh, the difficult one, no, I didn’t do it _________.
a: Yeah, it gives me a headache. I think it’s too difficult _________.

2. a: I am going to eat spaghetti for dinner. What do you want?
b: I’ll have some spaghetti ____________.
a: I thought that you didn’t like spaghetti.
b: Hmmmm, spaghetti is one of my favourite foods.

3. a. On Saturday, I’m going to Central, I need to buy some hair clips.
b: Oh, I need some too. Can you get me some _________?
a: Why don’t you just come with me and get some yourself.
b: Because I don’t have a lot of time. I am studying on Saturday.
a: I don’t have much time ____________.